

Luke 22:63-23:25

The Certain Gospel: The Great Exchange

2 Corinthians 5:21

God made him who had no sin to be sin for us, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God. (NIV[®])

Jesus willingly chooses to lay down his life for us.

Luke 22:66-71

Daniel 7:13-14

“In my vision at night I looked, and there before me was one like a son of man, coming with the clouds of heaven. He approached the Ancient of Days and was led into his presence. 14 He was given authority, glory and sovereign power; all nations and peoples of every language worshiped him. His dominion is an everlasting dominion that will not pass away, and his kingdom is one that will never be destroyed. (NIV[®])

John 10:17-18a

The reason my Father loves me is that I lay down my life—only to take it up again. 18 No one takes it from me, but I lay it down of my own accord. I have authority to lay it down and authority to take it up again...” (NIV[®])

Jesus is completely innocent but we are not.

Luke 23:1-5

Romans 3:23

for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, (NIV[®])

Luke 23:13-25

A close-up photograph of a dark, thorny branch, likely from a rose or similar plant, extending diagonally across the frame. The branch is covered in sharp, dark thorns. The background is a soft gradient of blue at the top and yellow at the bottom, suggesting a sunset or sunrise sky.

Jesus allows himself to be condemned to set us free.
