Acts 27:11 (NIV)

But the centurion, instead of listening to what Paul said, followed the advice of the pilot and of the owner of the ship.

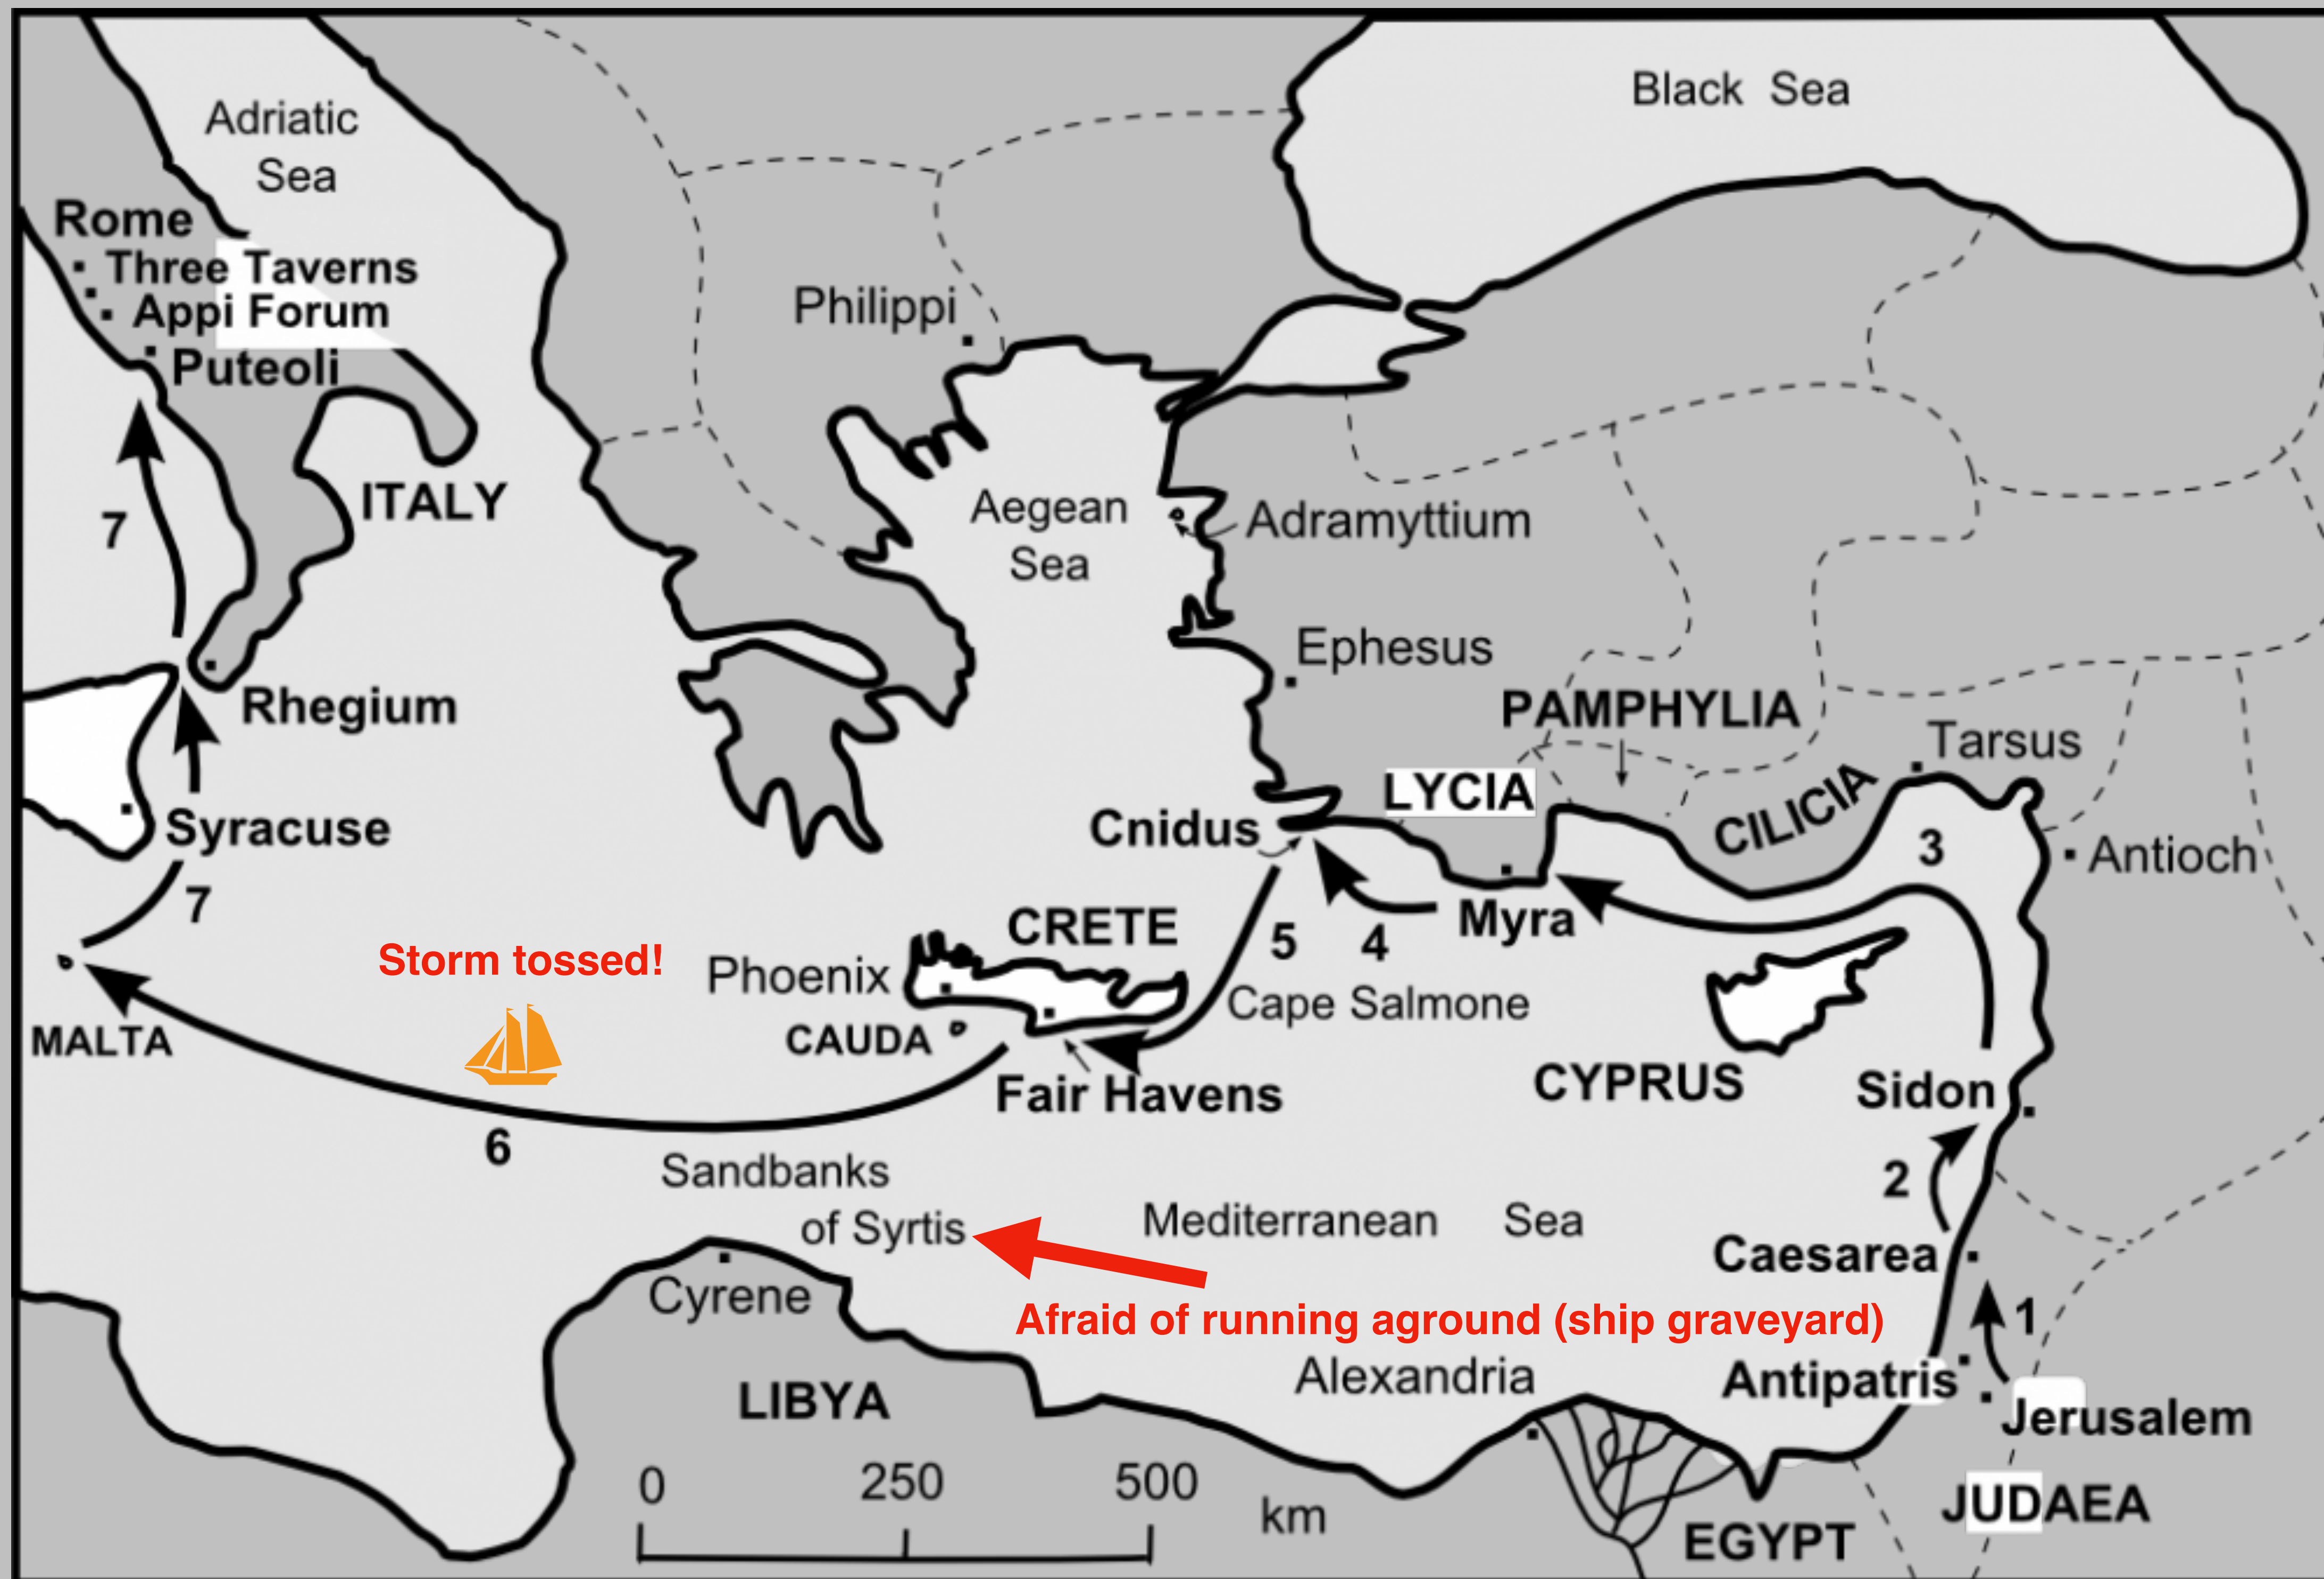

Northeaster wind!

Driven beneath Cauda island

Storm drives them away

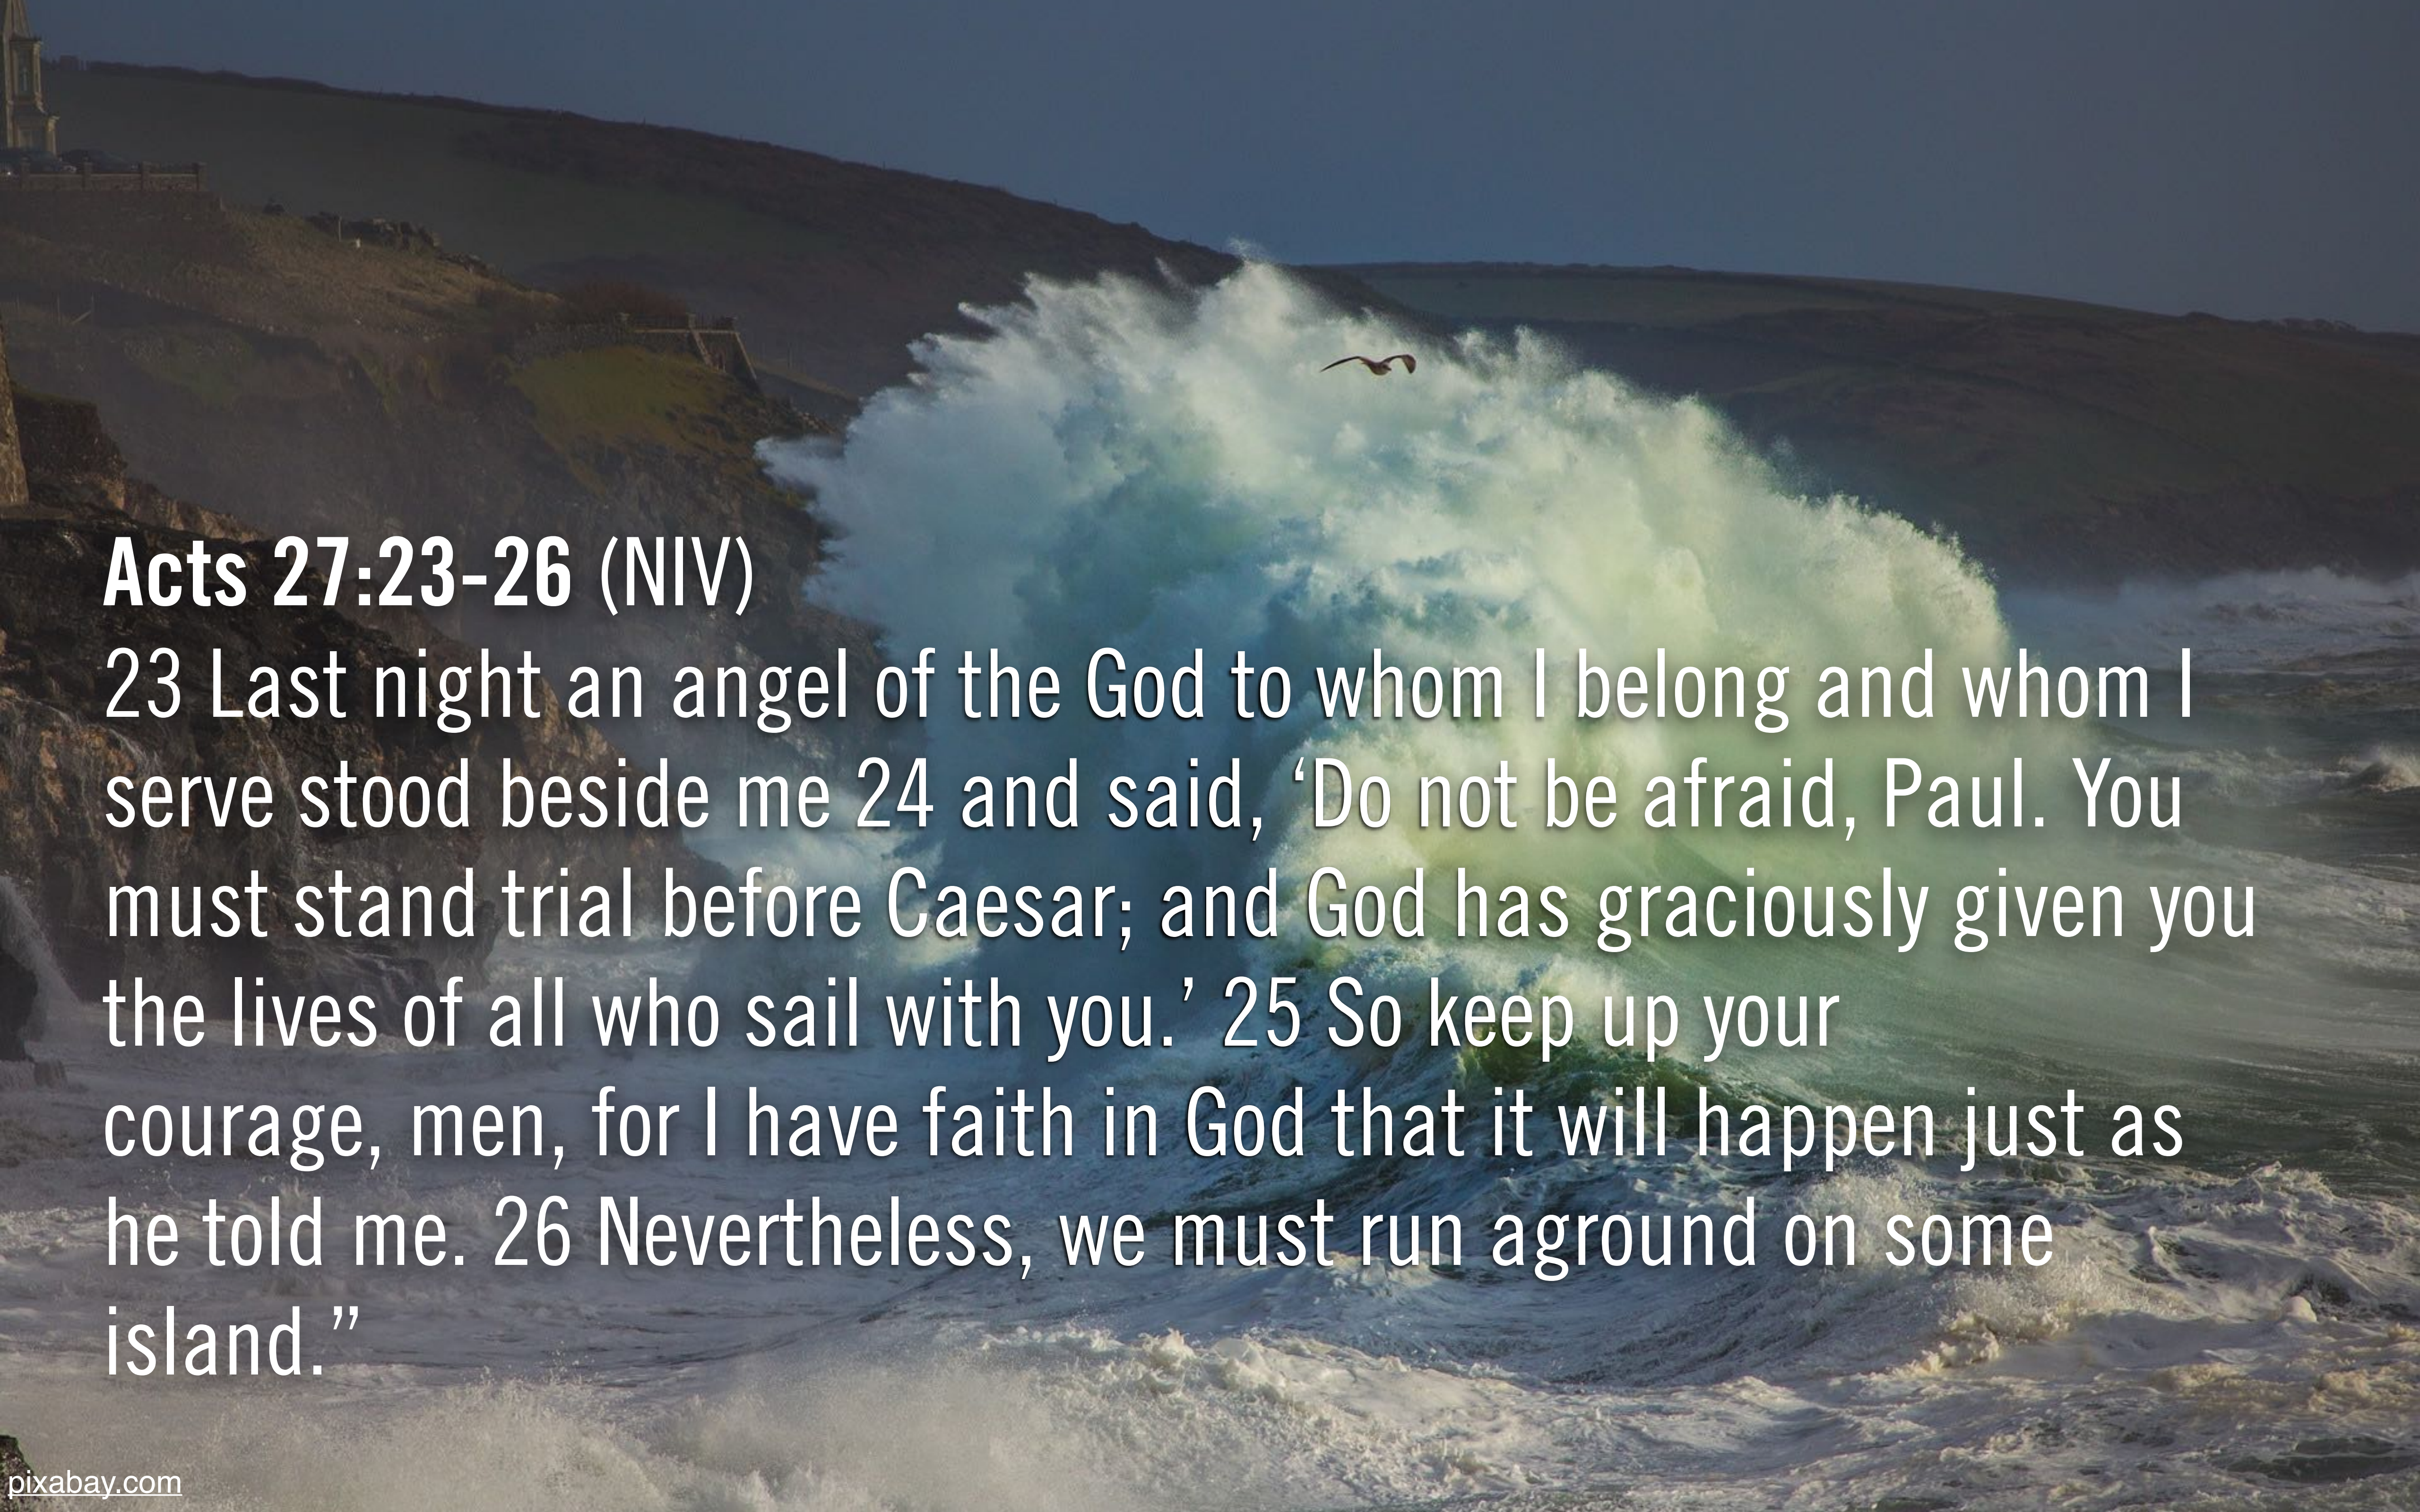

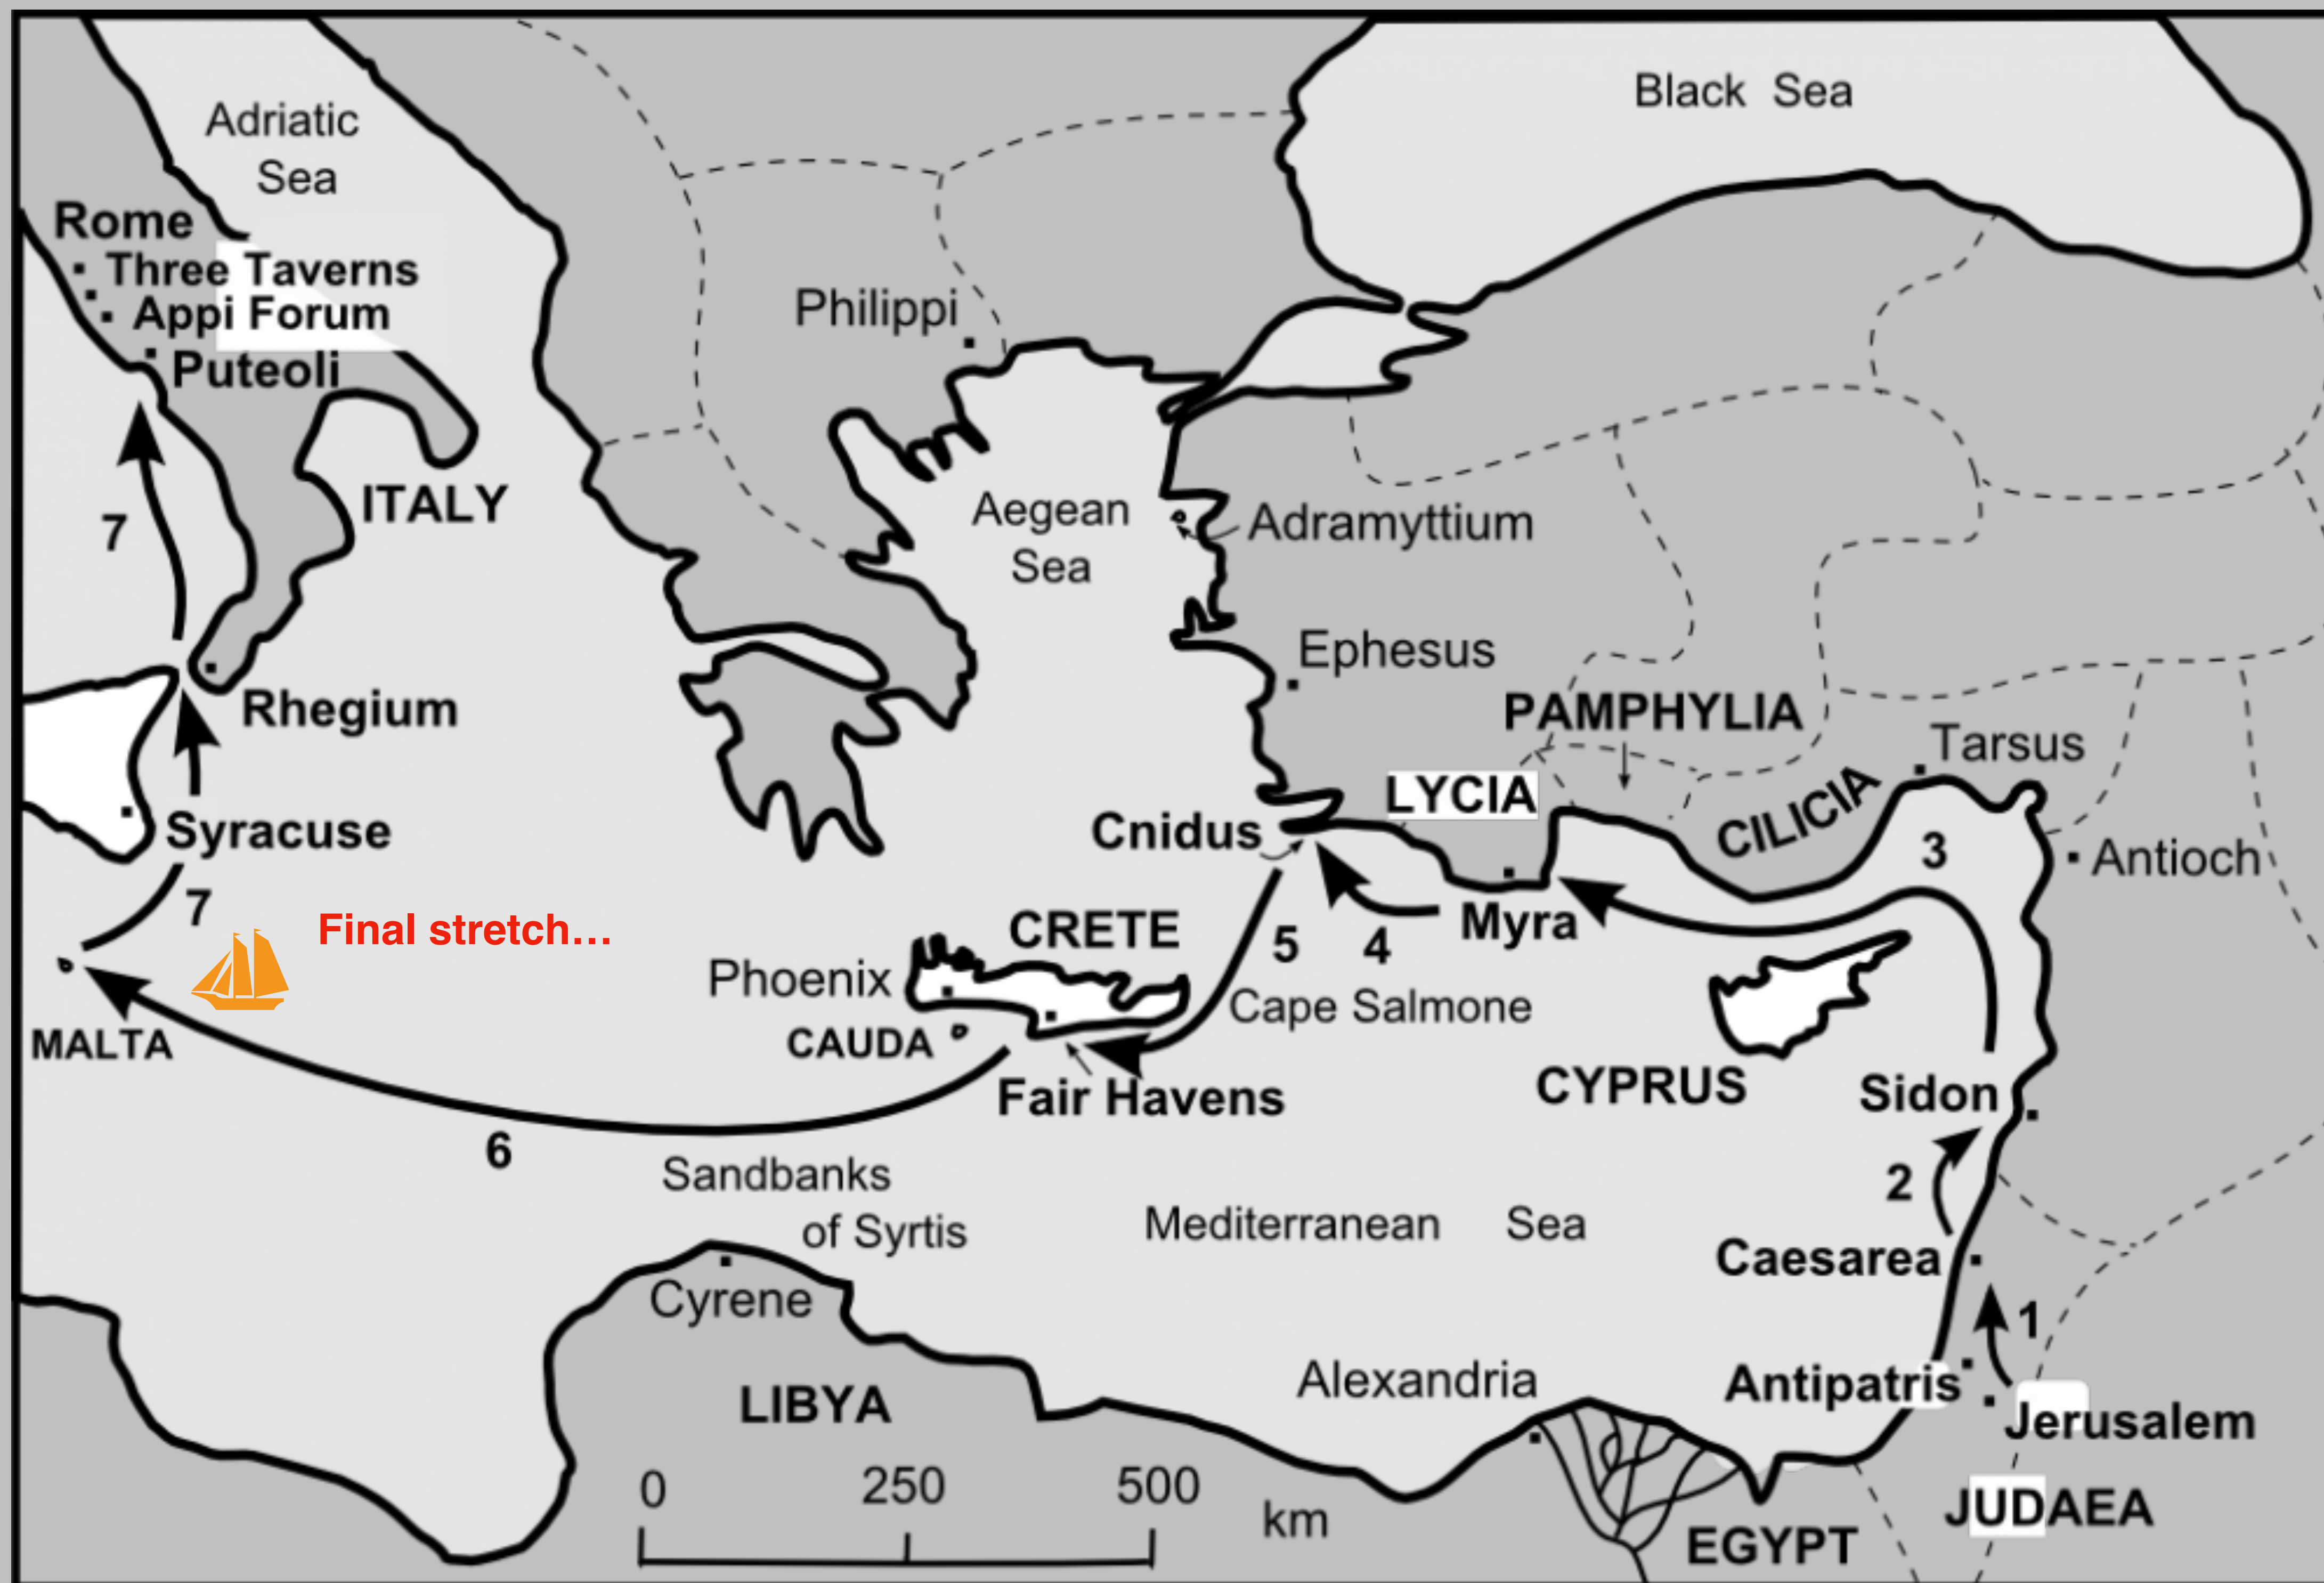

Acts 27:20 (NIV)

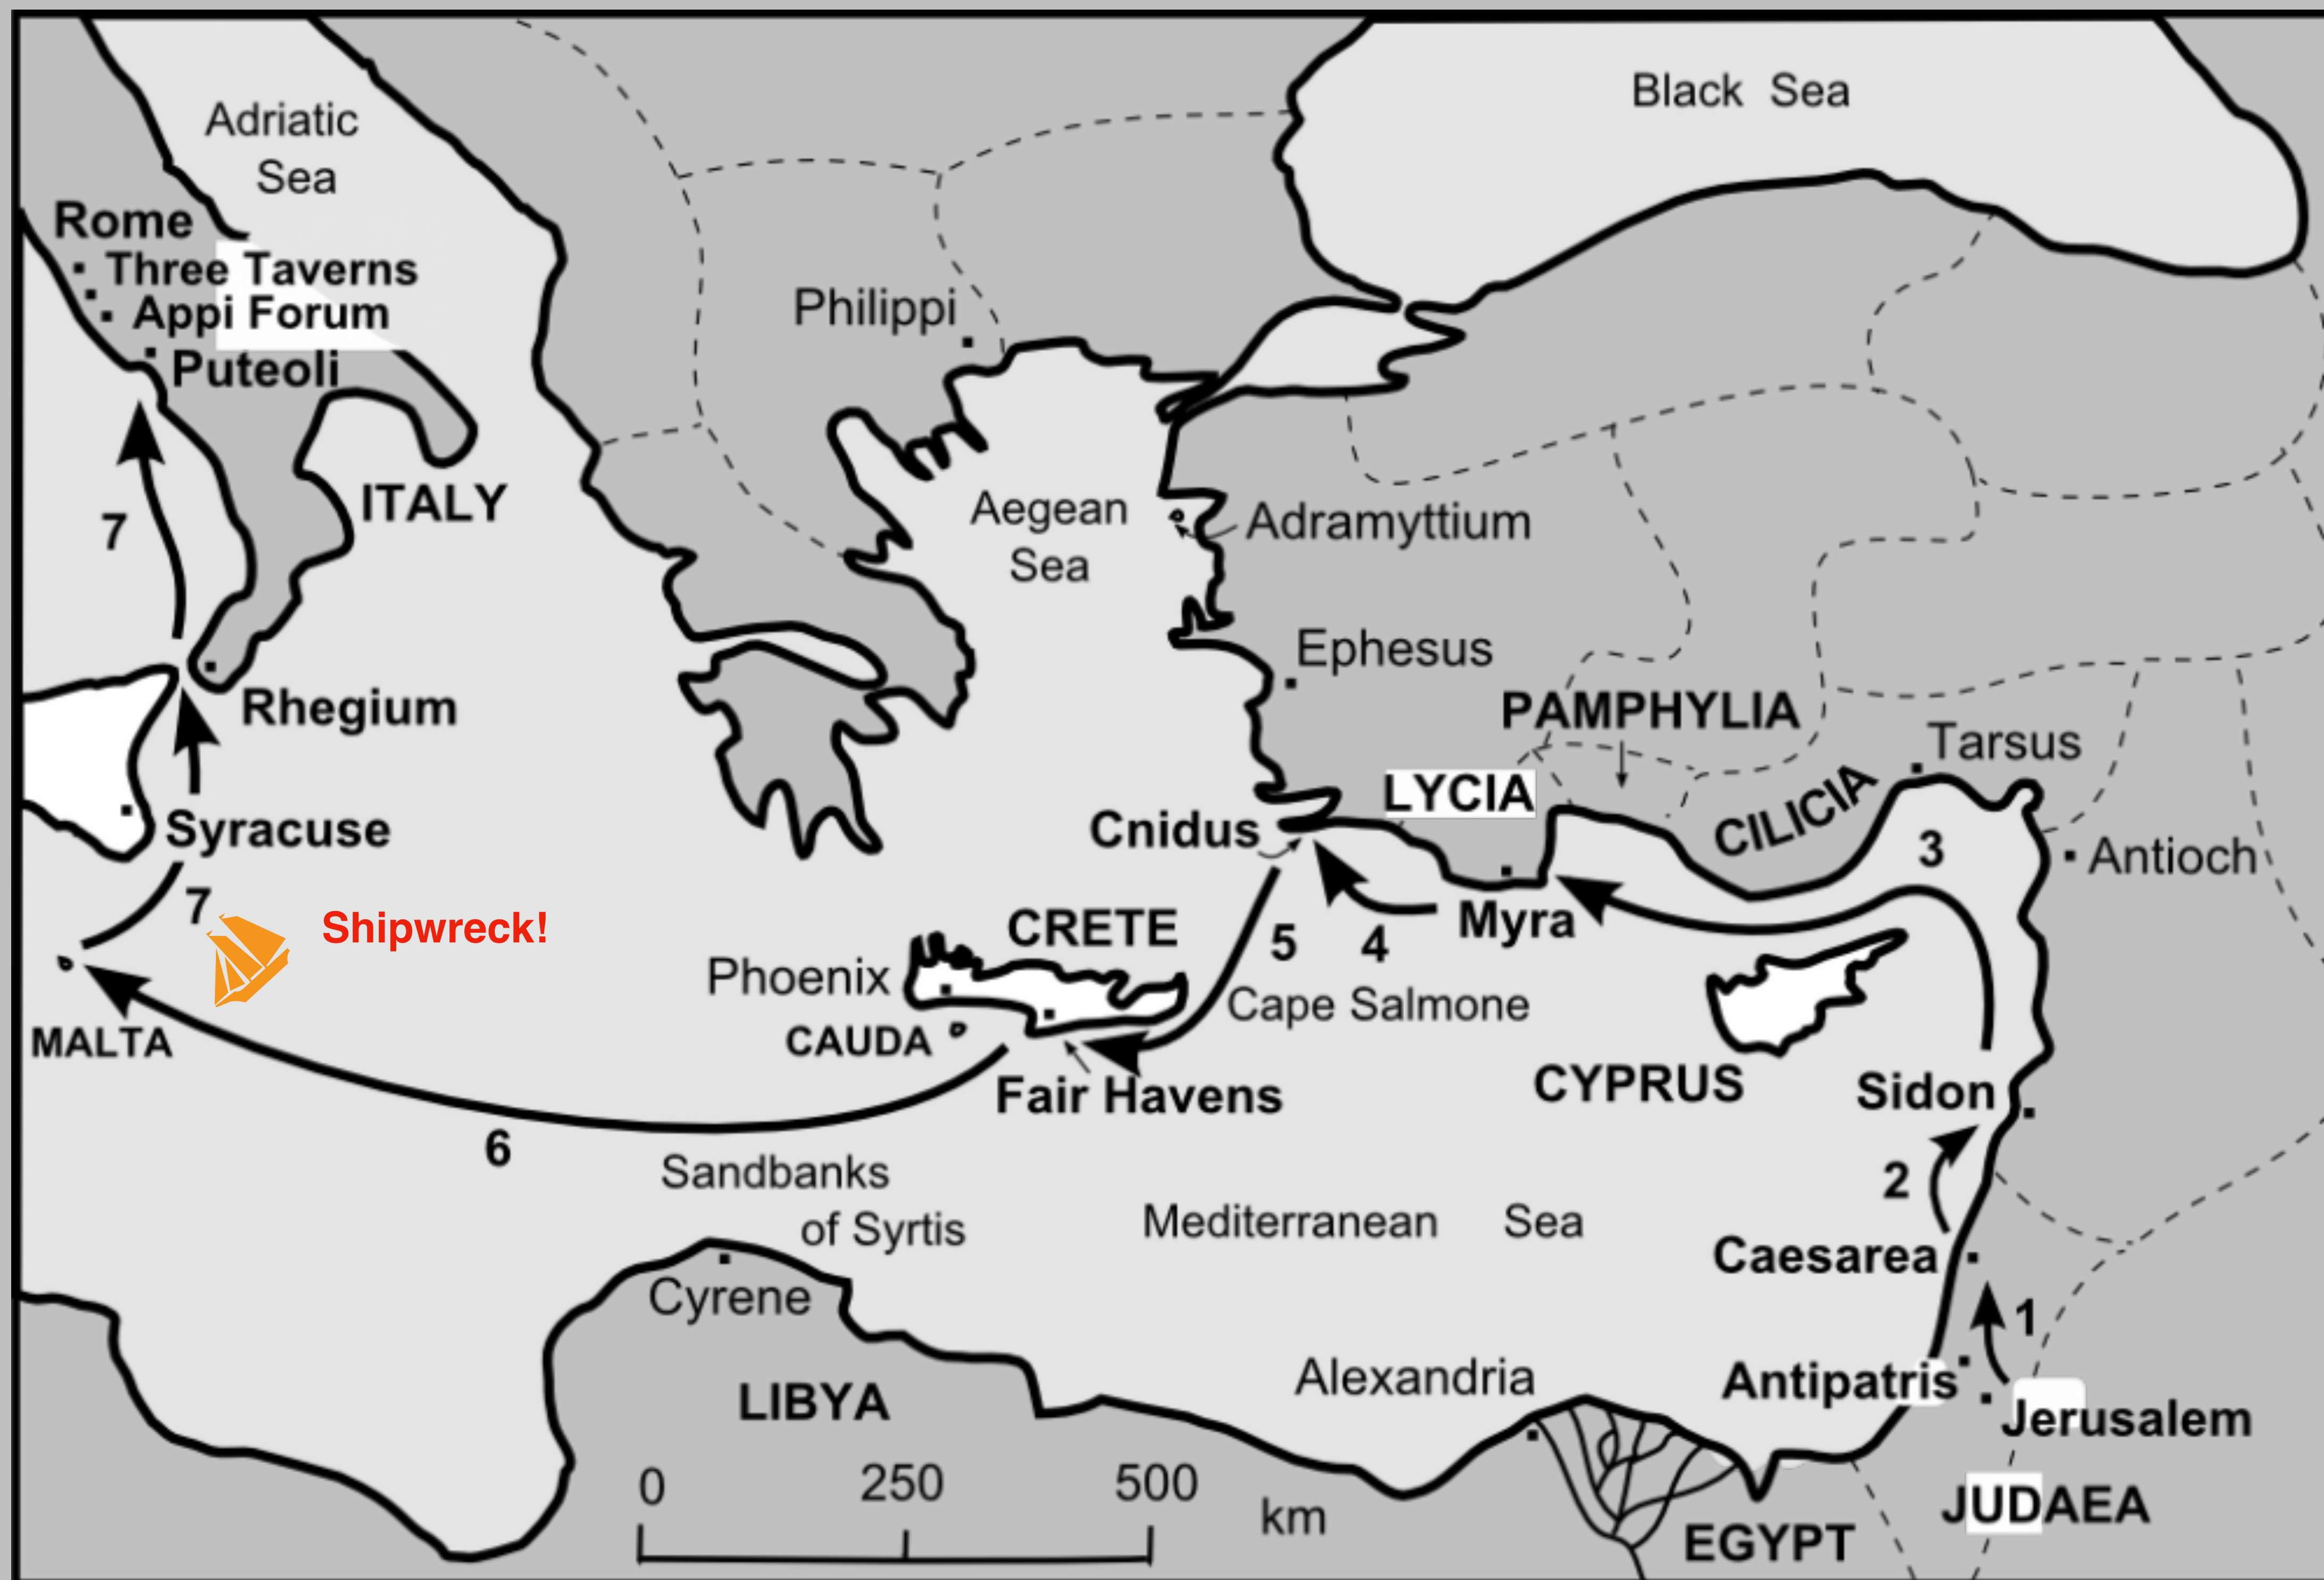

When neither sun nor stars appeared for many days and the storm continued raging, we finally gave up all hope of being saved.

Acts 27:23-26 (NIV)

23 Last night an angel of the God to whom I belong and whom I serve stood beside me 24 and said, ‘Do not be afraid, Paul. You must stand trial before Caesar; and God has graciously given you the lives of all who sail with you.’ 25 So keep up your courage, men, for I have faith in God that it will happen just as he told me. 26 Nevertheless, we must run aground on some island.”

“In this way everyone reached land safely.”
