DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. What do you think is the main lesson in this story?
2. Does it seem right that Jesus chided the disciples?
3. Why can/cannot fear and faith co-exist?
4. Did the disciples have reason(s) not to fear? Do we when faced with our limits in a threat to us or when in crisis?
5. How is it comforting to know that Jesus led His disciples into this situation?

BE WELL AT CORNERSTONE

The COVID-19 pandemic and concurrent season of respiratory illnesses including influenza as well as common colds present a challenge to protecting the health of ourselves and those around us. While we are certainly motivated to protect ourselves from illness, we also have a moral obligation to the wellbeing of our neighbors. The Deacons ask all members and attenders to please do a quick self-assessment before joining others for worship or other activities. If you feel unwell or have any symptoms of respiratory illness or have reason to believe that you are at risk for being contagious due to a recent exposure to illness, we ask that you stay home, take care of yourself, and join others virtually whenever possible. When attending church functions we recommend that folks wear a face covering. We will be continuing to monitor disease incidence in our community and among our members and attenders and will make other recommendations appropriately.

~The Deacons

1 Peter 3:15

“But in your hearts revere Christ as Lord. Always be prepared to give an answer to everyone who asks you to give the reason for the hope that you have.”

Pray with us - Pastoral Search Committee

First, I want to thank all who have been faithful in praying for the Pastoral Search Committee team and for the work set before us along with praying that God would help us to find and call the man of His choice. At this point we are in the process of reading and evaluating many applications. Please pray for us as this takes time and patience. Please continue to pray also for the church finances and for those who have the task of deciding what compensation we will be able to offer to our coming pastor.
