CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

December 24th, 2023

Luke 2:1-20

“God of the Unexpected: Strange, but Good News”

Pastor Ron Sylvester

Our Worship service begins at 10am with Song and Teaching. You are encouraged to take a clothes pin. Following the Teaching time, we have a time of Discussion. The clothes pins allow us to break groups up randomly. Please feel free to go where you feel most comfortable. Every week we close our service with an opportunity to recap what each group discussed, announcements and Benediction. Please stay following the service and get to know one another better.

“And there were shepherds living out in the fields nearby, keeping watch over their flocks at night. An angel of the Lord appeared to them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. But the angel said to them, “Do not be afraid. I bring you good news that will cause great joy for all the people. Today in the town of David a Savior has been born to you; he is the Messiah, the Lord.” Luke 2:8-11

Healthy Church:

As we enter the cold, cough, and COVID season, the Deacons ask our fellow members and attenders to please take care of themselves, stay home when not feeling well, and feel free to wear masks whenever they feel it appropriate to do so. We want to continue to enjoy healthy fellowship with everyone!

Pray with us - Pastoral Search Committee

Father, this week we thank you for the birth of your son Jesus and for all the love that you sent with Him. We thank you that we have a God who loves us so much that He would send His only Son to live among us knowing that He would one day die a shameful death to pay the price for our sins. As we continue the work on our search team this week, help us to remember all of the blessings that you have bestowed upon us and help us to praise you and seek you and to bring glory to you above all else.
